

GENRE: LETTER

2 THESSALONIANS

Jesus will make all things right

The church at Thessalonica continued to suffer, and Paul wrote to encourage them to find victory over the world by imitating Jesus' patient endurance. Knowing that some of the church members wondered if they had missed Jesus' return, Paul clarified that it would be obvious and that, until then, they should stay faithful and hopeful. Finally, he challenged them that followers of Jesus should not be idle, but imitate Jesus' selflessness by working hard for the good of themselves and others.
